Verbal Description:

Ocarina with the image of a frog perched above the soundly chamber. The frog eyes are puctured spheres with strips of clay present above them to define the upper margin of the head. The nose is represented by two puctures and the mouth by a wide, curving horizontal groove. The legs are small, bent back, the tail is a small, curved protuberance. There are two rounded humps between the head & the rear legs. The interior of the chamber is slightly rough. No fig damages, paint or slip.
